17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

- 1) Father, you are our maker and our protector. Help us to love all things in the sincerity of our hearts, especially in moments of abundant blessings, we pray to the Lord --
- 2) Lord, help us to feed the hungry among us. May we learn to share with you the many blessings you have bestowed on us, we pray to the Lord --
- 3) Father, we live in a world of over flowing goodness, but many still die of hunger, thirst, sickness and loneliness. Move the leaders of this world to share its sources to the benefit of all, we pray to the Lord --
- 4) Lord, we have received your word and soon will be refreshed with your Holy Eucharist by the strength of those mysteries. May we be single minded in knowing you, loving you and serving you in one another, we pray to the Lord –
- 5) Lord, we are thankful for those who serve our church in your name; bless all who contribute their time and talents, we pray to the Lord --
- 6) Father, be mindful of Rose Atencio, Diego Ruiz, and Carl Landini, as requested by Marilyn Wildschmidt, and all the sick. Please grant them strength and healing, we pray to the Lord --
- 7) Father, we entrust to you, oh Lord, all those who have died marked by the seal of your Son, and with them all the dead, especially Greg Roles and Virgil Kaley. May the power of your Father lead them to eternal joy which they hoped and lived for, we pray to the Lord –
